

PRESS RELEASE

The Auditor General of Québec tables Volume II of his Report to the National Assembly for 2009-2010 – Press release no. 1

Québec, November 18, 2009 – Mr. Renaud Lachance today made public Volume II of the Report of the Auditor General of Québec to the National Assembly for 2009-2010. In this volume, he notably presents the findings and recommendations arising from his value-for-money audit work:

- In Chapter 1, the Auditor General recalls the commitments of the Strategic Plan for 2009-2012 of the organization that he heads.
- Chapter 2 deals with the support for judicial activities in the network of 58 courthouses and 42 itinerant points of service spread across Québec's territory.
- As for Chapter 3, it focuses on the management of youth centres and the allocation of resources by the Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux.
- Chapter 4, for its part, presents the results of an audit of the management by the Ministère des Transports du Québec of contracts involving risk situations.
- Chapter 5 covers the watch on the project to renew Montréal's University Health Centres in relation to public-private partnerships.
- As for Chapter 6, it presents the results of the follow-up on a value-for-money audit carried out in 2004-2005, which dealt with internal audit in the Government of Québec.
